Language

Language of instruction	All classes are taught in French. 1 Master's Studio is taught in English and some master's studio teachers are identified as 'English friendly'. (Exchange students are not given priority as it is also offered to Ensa-PB students).
French for architect course	- Intensive French for architect course take place in August/September (optional, 30 hours of lessons, NO ECTS credits). - Extensive French for architect course are proposed at each semester. They are part of the bachelor's or master's programme. 22 hours of lessons (2 ECTS credit) They are free and organized by the school.
IMPORTANT	For universities that don't award 2 ECTS credits (French) or 1 ECTS credit (English) for the language course, we will not be able to replace this course with another course, meaning that students will only be able to earn 28 or 29 ECTS credits for one semester.
French language proficiency certificate	The student's level of French will be certified as follows: - For exchange students participating in the Erasmus programme: their OLS (Online Linguistic Support) test results or an official certificate of their level of French. - For exchange students not participating in the Erasmus programme: an official certificate of their level of French. This document will be requested from the student at the time of online registration.

Pedagogical registration	A form link will be sent to students, who will be asked to rank the studios and courses in order of preference, as the school may not be able to honour their first choices. As some studios and courses are in high demand and in order to ensure a good distribution of students, the Academic Department reserves the right to offer students courses that they have not chosen. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Students are required to enroll in the courses offered in the year for which they are registered. - Students must respect the structure of the Ensa-PB Bachelor 3 and Master program. At Ensa-PB, it is not possible to choose courses from different years. Guides for undergraduate Licence and Master can be downloaded from the school website section « academic » « courses » https://www.paris-belleville.archi.fr/ Guides for 2026-2027 will be available on our website at the beginning of each semester. (In the meantime, students can view the 2025-2026 course guides). Important: Master's seminar (introduction to research) Master's students who must take the 'seminar' to obtain 30 ECTS credits for one semester must demonstrate a B1 level of French and be enrolled from the first semester. It will not be possible to enrol in the seminar only in the second semester. Students attendance is required: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - all studio sessions and course - at the start of every course in each semester with the INTRODUCTIVE/INTENSIVE week. - at the exams at the end of each course of each semester with the "INTENSIVE" week. The draft learning agreement (OLA) for the year 2026-2027 is established before the arrival of the students. The final pedagogical contract will be established after the pedagogical registration period A draft course outline for the 2026-2027 year will be requested before students arrive.
Learning agreement (for Erasmus+ students) Draft course outline (For non-ERASMUS students)	The draft of learning agreement (OLA) for the 2026-2027 academic year is drawn up before the students arrive. The final teaching contract will be drawn up after the teaching registration period. OLA A draft course plan for the 2026-2027 academic year is requested before the students arrive.
Internship in a French agency	Students who wish to benefit from a professional experience through an internship must establish an agreement between their home university and the host agency in France. The days and hours of the internship should not be a substitute for the student's class schedule. It will not be possible to establish an agreement with Ensa-PB.
Grading	At Ensa-PB, a semester is validated by 30 ECTS credits. If the course of plan has fewer than 30 ECTS credits, the agreement of the partner university is required. However, we ask students to take courses for a minimum of 20 ECTS credits. The ENSA-PB uses the ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System). Student

	work is evaluated with letter-grades. Student results are documented with a ENSA-PB specific grade (Local grade) Ensa-PB Local Grades: A, B+ or B = Validated teaching within the framework of a teaching unit. B- and C = Teaching NOT validated. A remedial work will have to be done. Only the studio will not be made up.
