

Crash Crush

(Very compressed unfinished short summary)

The two friends Stellar and Yukine race in a karting series in their childhood. In the final deciding race, where the winner will get a spot in a professional racing team, Yukine crashes Stellar's kart in the last turn and wins the race. This results in a big fight and both of them go separate ways.

After 10 years Stellar - who became a car mechanic - and Yukine - who became a professional racing driver - meet again at an illegal drift race. At the second drift race Yukine loses control over their car and crashes it into the wall. After desperately searching for a workshop to repair their car they end up at Stellar's repair shop.

At first Stellar wasn't very happy to see her childhood friend, but after spending some time together she agreed to repair their car.

The next day the two friends line up at the start of the drift track. Both of them fight hard and fair when suddenly Yukine tries to pass Stellar in the last turn and both cars touch. Stellar's car gets very unsettled and steers towards the wall. Almost a millimetre before touching the barrier she manages to gain control over her drift again. Both of them finish the race without any damage.

They immediately jump out of their car and the only thing they could do at that moment was to hug each other and then ... kiss.
