Original Subway Sounds

The image displays three overlapping Windows Explorer windows, each showing a directory of subway sounds. The windows are titled 'U-Bahnsagen', 'U-bahnsagen_2', and 'U-bahnsagen_4'. Each window shows a file list with columns for Name, Title, and Album. The files are organized into folders like 'Ex2', 'nativeOpenCV310Andr...', and 'uProc2'. The file names are numerical values, likely representing sound IDs or durations.

Playtesting - Goals

Was the game fun?

Do you like the idea of the game?

Playtesting - Setup

- Number of testers: 5
- Time for each test: approx. 10 minutes
- TUM students
- 40% female – 60% male

Playtesting - Process

1. Introduction to this course and game theme
2. Advised to think loudly while playing
3. Controls weren't explained
4. Stopped test after most features were seen
5. Testers fill out survey at the end of game

The game was fun

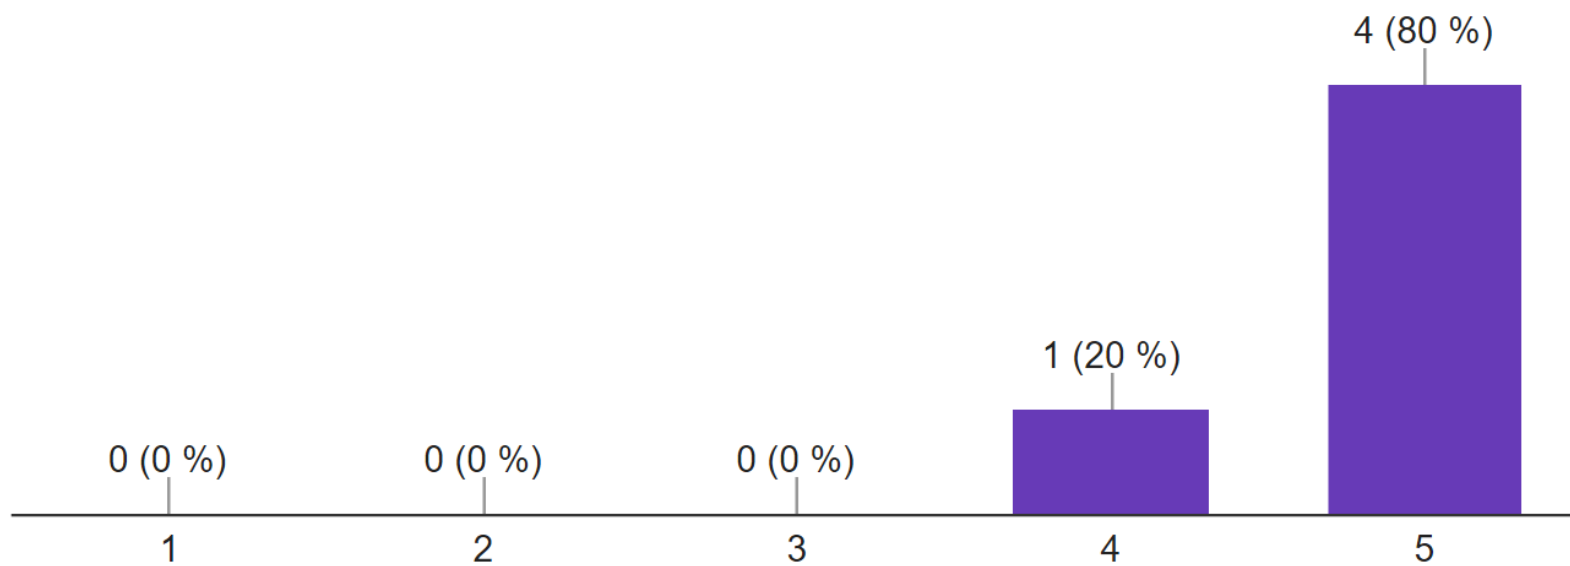

Controls were intuitive

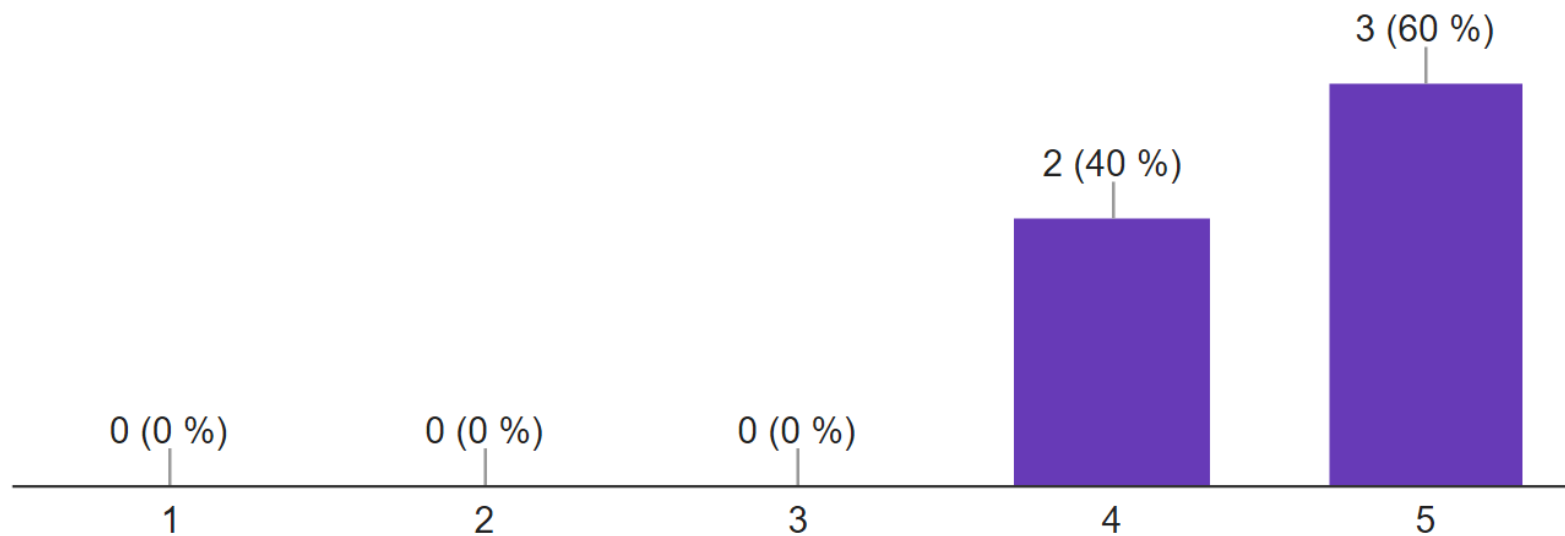

Game requires more polishing

I like the idea of this game

The game art fits the game style

Further Results

- Players don't care about:
 - Time
 - Money
 - Getting caught by ticket inspectors
- Overwhelmed by network complexity

Changes after testing

- Removed suburban trains (except S7)
- Improved camera for entering new train station
- Improved UI train schedule display
- Platforms aren't blocked anymore (bug)
- Implemented „Game over“-mechanism

Future Releases

- Organize big stations like Odeonsplatz, Marienplatz etc.
- Find locations of departing trains more easily
- Improve train information display
- Implement ticket inspector mobs (Massenkontrollen)
